

There's a place at NASA for YOU!

STUDENT INTERNSHIPS AT NASA's Goddard Space Flight Center

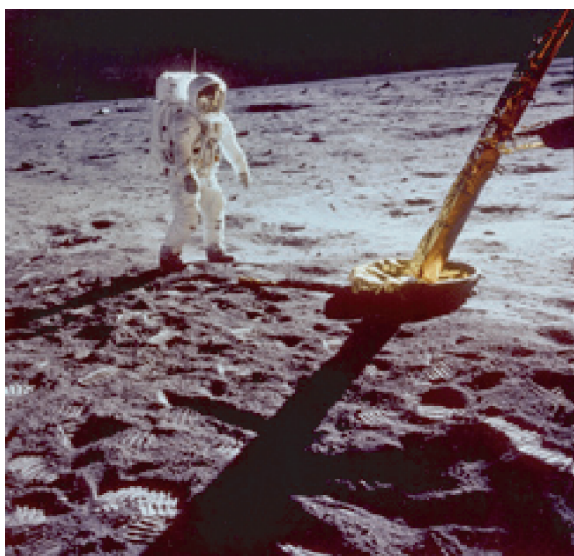

Who: Engineering, Mathematics, Physics, Astronomy, Computer Science majors (Undergraduate or Graduate)

What: Paid Internships.

Students will help develop and deliver a course for high school teachers on lunar science and robotics. No previous experience with lunar science necessary. Passionate interest in LEARNING and a desire for EXCELLENCE are a must.

When: June–July 2006.

Where: NASA's Goddard Space Flight Center, Greenbelt, MD

- Option A: 2 weeks @ GSFC, plus 2 weeks full-time teaching assistant ship, June 25–July 22, 2006.
- Option B: 2 weeks @ GSFC (July 16–29, 2006), plus part-time online teaching assistantship, Fall semester 2006

More opportunities will be available during Winter Break. Ask for details.

Contact Dr. Smith for additional details: smith@coe.tsuniv.edu

APPLICATIONS DUE APRIL 1, 2006

www.nasa.gov

student internships